Manufacturing Center a Big Win for Tennessee

A new $259 million public-private partnership places UT front and center in advanced composites manufacturing. President Obama delivered this great news himself by visiting a manufacturing center in Clinton, Tennessee. We join a new network that seeks to more closely align research and development resources with American manufacturing.

Partners in Making a Difference: UT is Now a Carnegie Engaged University

UT helps to make life better for communities just down the road and on the other side of the world through hundreds of service and outreach partnerships. Last month we received the prestigious Carnegie Community Engagement classification granted by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement for Teaching.
